5. Seller's Rights

If the Seller:

- (i) is unable to obtain an approval from relevant authorities, on terms satisfactory to the Seller in its absolute discretion, to complete the Development or any authority refuses to grant refuses to grant or revokes any necessary permit, approval or sealing or imposes any condition on any necessary permit, approval or sealing for the Development or plans or other relevant document that prevents the Seller from satisfying a Condition Precedent, or in the case of any condition, that the Seller is unable or unwilling to comply with;
- (ii) is unable to obtain sufficient funding to complete the Development on terms satisfactory to the Seller;
- (iii) is unable to enter into a construction contract on terms satisfactory to the Seller in its absolute discretion;
- (iv) is of the view that due to market conditions, change in legislation, planning or approval requirements, government changes or any other change that the Seller determines it to be commercially unviable, unacceptably risky or financially undesirable to complete the Development; or
- (v) suffers any set back, is of the view that selling the Lot on the agreed terms with the Buyer is not or is no longer in its commercial interests or reasonably believes that the Development will not or cannot proceed;

As long as the Seller is acting in good faith, the Seller may, by giving written notice to the Buyer, terminate this Contract whether or not the Seller has terminated any other contract in the Development. On termination, the deposit will be refunded in full to the Buyer, within 5 business days from the date of termination, with neither party having any Claim against the other, except in relation to any prior breach.

6. Conditions Precedent

- (a) This Contract is subject to and conditional on the Seller satisfying the following Conditions Precedent:
 - (i) The Seller obtaining all necessary approvals from any relevant authority for the Development;
 - (ii) Registration of the plan to create this Lot with Titles Queensland.
- (b) The Seller must do everything reasonably necessary to satisfy the Conditions Precedent on or before the Sunset Date.

7. Sunset Date

- (a) For the purposes of section 14(1) of the Land Sales Act, this Contract must be settled before the Sunset Date, failing which, subject to Part 2, Division 4A of the Land Sales Act, either Party may terminate the Contract by written notice to the other Party.
- (b) On termination under clause 7(a), the Deposit must be released to the Buyer, within 5 business days from the date of termination, and the Buyer has no further Claim against the Seller.
- (c) Should completion of the Development be delayed due to one or more of the following:
 - (i) Damage by an act of nature including flood, tsunami, cyclone, earthquake, bushfire;
 - (ii) Riot, civil commotion, war, invasion or a terrorist act;
 - (iii) A public health event occurs including a pandemic, epidemic or disease;
 - (iv) An imminent threat of an event in paragraphs (a)-(c);
 - (v) Compliance with any lawful direction or order by a Government Agency;
 - (vi) Proceedings being taken, threatened or disputes with adjoining or neighbouring owners;
 - (vii) Any delay with an Authority giving any required approval;
 - (viii) Delays in construction and building including material delays, trade shortages or union strikes;
 - (ix) Inclement weather;
 - (x) Any other cause, matter or thing

the Seller may extend the Sunset Date by the period of delay provided the Seller has provided a certificate by its Project Manager stating the delay and period of time. The Buyer cannot object or make Claim for any extension of the Sunset Date. The parties agree that the Seller may only extend the Sunset Date under this clause 7(c) for a maximum of 6 months from the Sunset Date.

- (d) The Buyer must not make any requisition, Claim, delay settlement, rescind or terminate this Contract because of or in connection with any matter which is disclosed or referred to in this clause.

8. Purchase Price

8.1. GST

- (a) The Seller shall be liable for any GST payable in respect of the supply of the Property to the Buyer under this Contract.
- (b) The Seller and Buyer hereby agree to adopt the "margin scheme" pursuant to provision 75 of the GST Act.
- (c) For any other supply under this Contract, unless expressly stated, all prices and other sums payable or consideration to be provided under this Contract for those supplies are exclusive of GST.

The Buyer acknowledges that:

- (d) the Seller is eligible to apply the margin scheme;
- (e) the margin scheme will apply to the calculation of any GST payable on the supply; and
- (f) the purchase price is inclusive of any GST payable under the margin scheme.

The parties agree that this clause satisfies the requirement in section 75-5(1A) of the GST Act that the application of the margin scheme is agreed in writing before the making of the supply.

Unless otherwise specified in this contract, the Purchase Price includes any GST payable on the supply of the Lot to the Buyer.

8.2. Deposit

- (a) The Buyer must pay the Deposit to the Seller at the times shown in the Reference Schedule. The Deposit Holder will hold the Deposit until a party becomes entitled to it.
- (b) The Buyer will be in default if it:
 - (i) does not pay the Deposit when required;
 - (ii) pays the Deposit by post-dated cheque; or
 - (iii) pays the Deposit by cheque which is dishonoured on presentation.
- (c) The Seller may recover from the Buyer as a liquidated debt any part of the Deposit which is not paid when required.
- (d) The Deposit must not exceed 20% of the Purchase Price before Settlement of the Contract. The Deposit Holder is irrevocably authorised to refund any monies that would otherwise result in the 20% threshold being exceeded.
- (e) The Parties agree that the Deposit will not be invested pending Settlement.

8.3. Bank Guarantee as Deposit

- (a) The Buyer may only pay the deposit by Bank Guarantee if the Seller consents. If the Seller consents, the Bank Guarantee must be on terms satisfactory to the Seller. Unless the Seller agrees to the terms of the Bank Guarantee, the Buyer has not complied with this clause 8.3.
- (b) If the Buyer breaches the contract, any part of the deposit secured by Bank Guarantee is immediately payable to the deposit holder and the Buyer authorises the Seller and the deposit holder to convert any Bond to cash.
- (c) If the Seller accepts a Bank Guarantee to secure the deposit and the Bond has an expiry or termination date (approved by the Seller), the Buyer must pay the deposit holder the deposit in cash at least 30 days before the date of expiry or termination. If the Buyer does not, it is a breach of the contract and in addition to the Seller's rights under the Contract, the Buyer automatically authorises the Seller and the deposit holder to convert any Bank Guarantee to cash.
- (d) If the Seller is entitled to convert a Bank Guarantee under the Contract, the Buyer indemnifies the Seller (and the Buyer will keep the Seller indemnified) for any cost or loss the Seller suffers in relation to cashing the Bank Guarantee including without limitation legal costs on a full indemnity basis for any legal action taken by the Seller.
- (e) If the Seller accepts a Bank Guarantee to secure the deposit and the Seller forms the opinion that the person who issued the Bond is not financially secure, the Seller can give the Buyer notice to replace the Bank Guarantee. If the Seller gives the Buyer such a notice then the Buyer must pay to the deposit holder in cash the amount secured by the Bond. If the Buyer fails to do so within 21 days of receiving the Seller's notice the Buyer will be in breach of the Contract.

8.4. Entitlement to Deposit

- (a) The party entitled to receive the Deposit is:
 - (i) If this Contract settles, the Seller;
 - (ii) If this Contract is terminated without default by the Buyer, the Buyer; and
 - (iii) If this Contract is terminated owing to the Buyer's default, the Seller.
- (b) The Deposit Holder is authorised to pay the Deposit to the party that the Deposit Holder believes is so entitled to it under clause 8.4(a).

- (c) The Buyer and Seller release the Deposit Holder from all liability for any loss or damage suffered or incurred by a party where the Deposit Holder pays the to a party that the Deposit Holder reasonably believes is entitled to it, and it is subsequently determined that the party who received the Deposit was not entitled to it.

8.5. Payment of Balance Purchase Price

- (a) On the Settlement Date, the Buyer must pay the Balance Purchase Price by Bank Cheque as the Seller or their Solicitor directs.

- (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Contract, a reference to a Bank Cheque:

- (i) Includes a cheque drawn by a Building Society or Credit Union on itself;
- (ii) Does not include a cheque drawn by a Building Society or Credit Union on a Bank;

And the Seller is not obliged to accept a cheque referred to in clause 8.5(b)(ii) on the Settlement Date.

- (c) If both the following apply:

- (i) The sale is not an excluded transaction under section 14-215 of the Withholding Law; and
- (ii) The Seller has not given the Buyer on or before settlement for each person comprising the Seller either:
 - (i) An ATO Clearance Certificate; or
 - (ii) A variation notice under section 14-235 of the Withholding Law which remains current at the Settlement Date varying the CGT Withholding Amount to nil,

Then,

- (iii) For clause 8.5(vi), the Seller irrevocably directs the Buyer to draw a bank cheque for the CGT Withholding Amount in favour of the Commissioner of Taxation or, if the Buyer's Solicitor requests, the Buyer's Solicitor's Trust Account;
- (iv) the Buyer must lodge a Foreign Resident Capital Gains Withholding Purchaser Notification Form with the ATO for each person comprising the Buyer and give copies to the Seller with the payment reference numbers (PRN) on or before settlement;
- (v) The Seller must return the bank cheque in paragraph (iii) to the Buyer's Solicitor at settlement; and
- (vi) The Buyer must pay the CGT Withholding Amount to the ATO in accordance with section 14-200 of the Withholding Law, the market value of the CGT asset is taken to be the Purchase Price less any GST including in the Purchase Price for which the Buyer is entitled to an input tax credit unless:

- (i) The Property includes items in addition to the Lot and Improvements; and
- (ii) No later than 2 Business Days before the Settlement Date, the Seller gives the Buyer a valuation of the Lot and Improvements prepared by a registered valuer,

In which case the market value of the Lot and Improvements will be as stated in the valuation.

- (vii) If the Buyer is required to pay the GST Withholding Amount to the Commissioner of Taxation at settlement pursuant to Section 14-250 of the Withholding Law:
 - (i) The Seller must give the Buyer a notice in accordance with section 14-255(1) of the Withholding Law;
 - (ii) Prior to settlement the Buyer must lodge with the ATO:

- (a) a GST Property Settlement Withholding Notification form ('Form 1'); and

- (b) a GST Property Settlement Date Confirmation form ('Form 2');
- (iii) on or before settlement, the Buyer must give the Seller copies of:
 - (a) the Form 1;
 - (b) confirmation from the ATO that the Form 1 has been lodged specifying the Buyer's lodgement reference number and payment reference number;
 - (c) confirmation from the ATO that the Form 2 has been lodged; and
 - (d) a completed ATO payment slip for the Withholding Amount;
- (iv) the Seller irrevocably directs the Buyer to draw a bank cheque for the GST Withholding Amount in favour of the Commissioner of Taxation and deliver it to the Seller at settlement; and
- (v) the Seller must pay the GST Withholding Amount to the ATO in compliance with section 14-250 of the Withholding Law promptly after settlement.
- (viii) The Buyer warrants that the statements made by the Buyer in the Reference Schedule under GST Withholding Obligations are true and correct.

9. Adjustments

- (a) Adjustments must be apportioned between the Parties in accordance with this clause 9 and any adjustments paid and received on settlement so that:
 - (i) The Seller is liable for all Outgoings for the Lot up to and including the date of registration of the Plan that creates the Lot; and
 - (ii) The Buyer is liable for Outgoings from and including the date of registration of the Plan that creates the Lot.
- (b) Outgoings must be apportioned:
 - (i) For those paid, on the amount paid;
 - (ii) For those assessed but unpaid, on the amount payable (excluding any discount); and
 - (iii) For those not assessed:
 - (A) On the amount the relevant authority advises will be assessed (excluding any discount); or
 - (B) If no advice on the assessment to be made is available or not issued in respect of the Lot, then the apportionment must be made of the assessment or Outgoings relating to the whole of the Lots in the assessment shared, or on the amount the Seller's Solicitor, acting reasonably, determines as the basis on which the adjustment will be made.
- (c) If the Buyer is unable to obtain a clearance from the relevant authority in respect of the Lot, then the Buyer must accept an undertaking by the Seller, which is hereby given, that it will pay and discharge its proportion of any Outgoing owing or assessed on the Lot. The Buyer is not entitled to withhold or require the retention of any amount or require the payment of any amount to the relevant authority to obtain a clearance.
- (d) The Buyer must not retain any part of the Balance Purchase Price on settlement in respect of any unassessed or unpaid land tax, rates, tax, or Outgoing.
- (e) Land tax must be calculated for apportionment purposes on the basis that, as at midnight on the previous 30 June, the Seller owned no land other than its interest in the Land.

10. Creation of Lot

- (a) The Seller will cause the Lot to be created in general accordance with the plans contained in the Disclosure Documents, subject to any requirements of any Authority and subject to the terms of this Contract.

- (b) The Seller may:
 - (i) alter the area or dimensions of the Land or transfer or dedicate any part of it in accordance with any approval of any Authority;
 - (ii) alter the number of lots in the Development.
 - (iii) Make minor Variations in the Lot between the Plan as produced to the Buyer and the Plan as registered by Titles Queensland including reducing the size of the Lot by up to 2% from that shown in the Contract;
 - (iv) construct any services on or under the Land (which need not be protected by easement).
- (c) The Buyer must not withhold any part of the Balance of the Price, delay settlement or make any objection or Claim because of:
 - (i) any of the matters in clause 10(b);
 - (ii) any boundary of the Property not being fenced or that a boundary fence or wall is not on or within the boundary;
 - (iii) any alterations or Variations in any of the plans and specifications which when viewed objectively are not materially adversely different from those as disclosed in this Contract;
 - (iv) access to the Lot is by way of easement and/or is shared with others;
 - (i) there are any other variations, issues or matters which, viewed objectively, does not have a material adverse effect on the use or value of the Lot and does not result in the Lot, once a separate title issues for it, being substantially different to that described in this Contract or as shown in the Disclosure Plan and Disclosure Statement provided to the Buyer.

11. Seller's Warranties

- (a) The Seller warrants that at settlement:
 - (i) it will be the registered owner of an estate in fee simple in the Lot;
 - (ii) it will be capable of completing this Contract;
 - (iii) the Lot will be free from all Encumbrances other than for the Title Encumbrances, except as disclosed or provided for in this Contract;
 - (iv) it will be unaware of any latent defect in the Lot, except as disclosed or provided for in this Contract;
 - (v) it is not aware of any current or threatened claims, notices or proceedings that may lead to a judgement order or writ affecting the Lot.
- (b) If the Seller breaches a warranty under this clause 11(a), the Buyer may:
 - (i) terminate this Contract by notice in writing to the Seller; or
 - (ii) complete this Contract and claim compensation, but only if the Buyer claims it in writing before settlement.

12. Marketing/Display Lots

- (a) You cannot object to reasonable methods used by us in marketing other lots in the Development or adjoining developments including, without limitation:
 - (i) the use of signs on the Parcel, Land or Development once established;
 - (ii) people passing over the Development to and from any lots in the Development.
- (b) You will not object to, make any Claim or take any other action whatsoever (including issuing any proceedings for an injunction or damages) related to:

- (i) any operation (including construction) of any improvement, or any other things done, on the Parcel and the noise, nuisance or other inconvenience which might arise from that;
- (ii) the use by the Seller, and persons authorised by the Seller, of lots in the Development to:
 - (A) give access to and egress from any part of the Parcel with or without vehicles and equipment; and
 - (B) store materials, vehicles, equipment or fill on the Parcel.
- (iii) complying with any reasonable direction of the Seller (or those authorised by it) while construction operations are being carried out on the Parcel, including directions related to traffic (vehicle and pedestrian) flow.
- (c) In exercising the Seller's rights under this clause, the Seller will use reasonable endeavours to prevent undue interference with the enjoyment, by the Buyer, of the Property.

13. Settlement

13.1. Time and Date

- (a) The Settlement Date will be 14 days after the day the Seller notifies the Buyer that all of the Conditions Precedent are satisfied and the Development is established and Lot created. The Buyer must not settle earlier than 14 days after the Seller notifies the Buyer that the Lot has been established.
- (b) Settlement must occur between 9.00am and 4.00pm on the Settlement Date; and
- (c) If the parties do not agree on where settlement is to occur, it must take place in the Place for Settlement or the office of a Solicitor or Financial Institution nominated by the Seller.

13.2. Extension of the Settlement Date

- (a) The Buyer acknowledges that nothing in this clause:
 - (i) Is a representation by the Seller that it will agree to an extension of the Settlement Date;
 - (ii) Creates any entitlement for the Buyer to an extension of the Settlement Date; or
 - (iii) Alters time being of the essence of this Contract. The parties agree that should the Settlement Date be extended, time is of the essence in respect to the extended Settlement Date.
- (b) If the Buyer requests an extension of the Settlement Date, the Seller may agree to the extension in its sole discretion. If the Seller agrees to and grants the extension, the Buyer acknowledges it will be liable for any penalty or cost or interest amount imposed by the Seller under this Contract.
- (c) If for any reason the Seller is unable to:
 - (i) provide access to the Lot to the Buyer;
 - (ii) complete this Contract on the Settlement Date; or
 - (iii) otherwise perform any of its obligations under this Contract, then, the Seller may, by notice in writing to the Buyer:
 - (iv) terminate this Contract; or
 - (v) extend the Settlement Date by a period of not more than three (3) months from the original Settlement Date.
- (d) The Seller may extend the Settlement Date under Special Condition 13.2(c)(v) more than once, so long as the Settlement Date is not extended, in aggregate, beyond the date which is three (3) months from the original Settlement Date.

- (e) If the Seller is unable to complete this Contract by the date which is three (3) months after the original Settlement Date, then this Contract will automatically be at an end and the Deposit and any other money paid shall be refunded to the Buyer and neither party shall have any action or Claim against the other party arising out of this Contract.

13.3. Documents at Settlement

In exchange for payment of the Balance Purchase Price, the Seller must deliver to the Buyer at Settlement:

- (a) Separate indefeasible Title;
- (b) Unstamped Transfer Documents capable of immediate registration after stamping;
- (c) Any instrument necessary to release any encumbrance over the Property in compliance with the Seller's obligation in clause 16.1;
- (d) Vacant possession of the Lot.

13.4. Title to the Lot and the Included Chattels

- (a) The Property is sold and the Buyer shall take title subject to matters including:
 - (i) Any latent or patent defect of the Property;
 - (ii) Any easements benefiting or burdening the Property or the Parcel, including:
 - (A) the passage or provision of services;
 - (B) lateral and/or subjacent support; and
 - (C) projections from the Parcel over adjoining properties or over the Parcel from adjoining properties;
 - (iii) any transfer, lease, easement or other right over the Parcel (whether existing or not) to an Authority or similar entity;
 - (iv) any notification, easement or restriction (other than a mortgage) reasonably required to satisfy an Authority as a condition to the grant of any approval or the registration of any plan or document;
 - (v) any notification on any rates notice for the lot;
 - (vi) anything described for referred to in the Disclosure Statement or Development Approval;
 - (vii) any Encumbrance affecting the Property or the Parcel (other than a mortgage or charge);
 - (viii) any easement, occupation authority or other right over the Land to the Crown, local government, Government corporate, any other statutory authority, any entity providing any service, adjoining owner or owner of land within the Development;
 - (ix) Any mains, pipes, wires, equipment or connections of any service provider or relevant authorities responsible for the provision of the services;
 - (x) Any services that pass through or situated on, over or under the Property;
 - (xi) Any water or sewerage main or any underground or surface storm water pipe or drain passing through or situated on over or under the Property;
 - (xii) Any sewer manhole or vent on the Property;
 - (xiii) Any boundaries of the Property that are not fenced; or
 - (xiv) Any matters relating to the Property including any non-compliance with any laws.
- (b) Before entering into this Contract, the Buyer has satisfied itself as to the matters referred to in this clause 13.4.

- (c) This clause 13.4 does not merge on completion of this Contract.

13.5. Staged Settlements

- (a) The Seller may elect to effect settlement of the sale of various lots within the Development at different times on a staged basis (Staged Settlements).
- (b) The Buyer must not object to the Seller effecting Staged Settlements.
- (c) The Seller discloses and the Buyer acknowledges that if the Seller elects to effect Staged Settlements, construction works of some parts of the Development (but not the Lot) may continue to be undertaken after Settlement.
- (d) The Buyer will not object to the Seller effecting Staged Settlements and the Buyer will not object to the continued construction activities with the Development including but not limited to:
- (i) Works done on or within the Parcel or Development Land including works that create noise, nuisance, inconvenience or other that may arise from the activities;
 - (ii) The use by the Seller and their authorised parties of parts of the Parcel or Development Land for construction access, to maintain a site office and storage of building materials, vehicles, equipment or fill; and
 - (iii) The Seller and their authorised parties causing areas within the Development to be temporarily closed or restricted to facilitate the continued construction of the Development,

Despite these works occurring after Settlement even if for an extended period after Settlement.

14. Disclosure Statement

- (a) The Buyer warrants it received a Disclosure Statement relevant to the Lot being purchased which includes all information the Seller is required to give, as required under the Land Sales Act, prior to entering into the Contract.
- (b) The Buyer warrants that the Seller has complied with their obligations under section 12 of the Land Sales Act by providing a copy of the Disclosure Statement to the Buyer.
- (c) The Buyer acknowledges and agrees that the Seller has entered into this Contract in reliance on the warranties contained in this clause and on the basis that those warranties are true and not misleading.

15. Time

Time is of the essence of this contract, except regarding any agreement between the parties on a time of day for Settlement.

16. Dividing Fence

- (a) Notwithstanding any provision in the Neighbourhood Disputes (Dividing Fences and Trees) Act 2011, the Seller need not contribute to the cost of building any dividing fence between the Land and any adjoining land owned by it. The Buyer waives any right to claim contribution from the Seller.

17. Matters Affecting the Lot

17.1. Encumbrances

The Lot is sold free of all Encumbrances other than Title Encumbrances and statutory easements for the Development and those detailed under this Contract.

17.2. Requisitions

The Buyer may not deliver any requisitions or enquiries on the Lot.

17.3. No Caveat

- (a) The Buyer must not and must ensure that any person Claiming through the Buyer does not lodge a caveat affect the Property or Parcel.
- (b) The Buyer must keep indemnified the Seller against all loss or damages as may be suffered by the Seller in the event that the Buyer breaches this clause. This indemnity does not merge on completion or termination of this Contract.

18. Risk

The Lot is at the Seller's risk until Settlement and thereafter risk passes to the Buyer.

19. Buyer's Default

19.1. Seller May Affirm or Terminate

If the Buyer fails to comply with any provision of this contract, the Seller may affirm or terminate this contract.

19.2. If Seller Affirms

If the Seller affirms this contract under clause 19.1, it may sue the Buyer for:

- (a) damages;
- (b) specific performance; or
- (c) damages and specific performance.

19.3. If Seller Terminates

If the Seller terminates this contract under clause 19.1, it may do all or any of the following:

- (a) resume possession of the Lot;
- (b) retain the Deposit and any part of the Balance Purchase Price then paid;
- (c) sue the Buyer for damages;
- (d) resell the Lot.

19.4. Resale

- (a) The Seller may recover from the Buyer as liquidated damages:
 - (i) any deficiency in price on a resale; and
 - (ii) its expenses connected with this contract, any repossession, any failed attempt to resell, and the resale;provided the resale settles within 2 years of termination of this contract.
- (b) Any profit on a resale belongs to the Seller.

19.5. Seller's Damages

The Seller may Claim damages for any loss it suffers as a result of the Buyer's default, including its legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis.

19.6. Interest on Late Payments

- (a) Without affecting the Seller's other rights, if any money payable by the Buyer under this contract is not paid when due (including Deposit and Balance Purchase Price), the Buyer must pay the Seller at settlement interest on that money calculated at the Default Interest Rate from the due date for payment until and including the date payment is made.
- (b) The Seller may recover that interest from the Buyer as liquidated damages.

- (c) If the Buyer fails to effect Settlement on the Settlement Date, then the Seller may elect to impose interest on the full Purchase Price without making any allowance for the Deposit having been paid by the Buyer.
- (d) The Buyer's obligation to pay interest does not amount to an agreement or potential agreement by the Seller to extend any date on which a payment is due. Any extension request from the Buyer will be considered at the Seller's sole discretion.
- (e) Payment of interest in accordance with this clause is an essential term of the Contract.

20. Staged and Further Development

Staged Development

- (a) The Buyer acknowledges that the development may be implemented by the Seller in stages in its sole and absolute discretion.
- (b) The Buyer must not object or make any Claim:
 - (i) against the Seller for proceeding with the development progressively in stages or not proceeding with any part of the staged development;
 - (ii) any civil or construction works of any building or improvements or any other things done on the Parcel including any works to utility infrastructure, services, excavation, earth works, nuisance, noise, or other inconvenience that may arise from these activities;
 - (iii) the use of the Parcel and parts of the Parcel by the Seller and its authorised parties for construction access, to maintain a site office and storage of building materials, vehicles, equipment or fill;
 - (iv) the Seller and its authorised parties causing an area or areas to be temporarily closed or restricted to facilitate the construction of any part of the Development; and
 - (v) the Seller and its authorised parties causing an area of Parcel to be closed or restricted to occupants in the Parcel to prevent access and use due to safety reasons or to enable the further development of the Development or to effect construction activities generally,
 - (vi) any application for any approval made with any Authority for the further carrying out of the Development provided such application is for an approval, which if granted and given effect to, will not have a direct material adverse effect on the use or the value of the Property, including if these matters occur after Settlement and for an extended period after Settlement.

- (c) The Seller covenants and agrees with the Buyer that it will only exercise the rights granted to it under this clause 20 for the purposes of completing the progressive staged development proposed by the Seller.
- (d) This clause 20 does not merge on completion of this Contract.

21. Representation on Views

- (a) The Buyer acknowledges that the Parcel and adjoining land or in the area of the Parcel may be developed in the future, that may result in the views from the Lot or any part of the Development being interrupted, impeded or interfered with.
- (b) The Buyer agrees that:
 - (i) The Seller does not make any representation or warranty that any views represented or depicted on any marketing material will be maintained in the future; and
 - (ii) The Buyer is not entitled to object or make any Claim against the Seller as a result of view from the Lot or any part of the Development being impeded or interfered with or otherwise not being available due to development on any land adjoining or in the area of the Parcel.

22. General

22.1. Foreign Buyer Approval

The Buyer warrants that the statement in the Reference Schedule as to whether the Buyer is a foreign person or not is accurate and that either:

- (a) The Buyer's purchase of the Property is not a notifiable action; or
- (b) The Buyer has received a no objection notification, under the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975.

22.2. Personal vs Non Personal Use

The Buyer warrants that either:

- (a) The Buyer will be purchasing the Property for personal / owner occupier use; or
- (b) The Buyer will be purchasing the Property for non-personal / investment purposes, and authorises the Seller to notify any relevant Authority of this information.

22.3. Duty

The Buyer must pay:

- (a) all duty payable in relation to this Contract or transactions contemplated by it; and
- (b) all registration fees on the Transfer Documents.

22.4. Non-merger

A provision of this Contract that can have effect after settlement and registration of the Transfer Documents continues to have effect notwithstanding settlement and registration.

22.5. Buyer must not assign

The Buyer must not assign or transfer or attempt to assign or transfer the Buyer's interest under this Contract without the prior written consent of the Seller. This is an Essential Term.

22.6. Notices

- (a) Notices under this contract must be in writing and may be given by a party's solicitor.
- (b) Notices including those relation to registration of the Plan and calling for settlement may be given after 5pm and must be considered received on the same Business Day that the notice is sent.
- (c) Notices are effectively given if:
 - (i) delivered or posted to the other party or its solicitor; or
 - (ii) sent to the facsimile number of the other party or its solicitor.
- (d) Posted notices will be treated as given 2 Business Days after posting.
- (e) Notices sent by facsimile will be treated as given when the sender obtains a clear transmission report.
- (f) Notices or other written communications by a party's solicitor (for example, calling for settlement) will be treated as given with that party's authority.

22.7. Counterparts

- (a) This Contract may be executed in two or more counterparts, all of which will together be deemed to constitute one and the same Contract.
- (b) A counterpart may be electronic and signed using an Electronic Signature.

22.8. Business Days

If anything is required to be done on a day that is not a Business Day, it must be done instead on the next Business Day.

22.9. Governing Law

This Contract is governed by the law in force in the State of Queensland.

22.10. Rights After Settlement

Despite settlement, any term of this contract that can take effect after settlement remains in force.

22.11. Further Acts

If requested by the other party, each party must, at its own expense, do everything reasonably necessary to give effect to this Contract, including but not limited to any covenants or warranties required from the Buyer to the Seller.

23. Errors and Misdescriptions

The Buyer must not object to any error or misdescription of the Lot and cannot terminate this Contract or delay completion or Claim any compensation or damages in relation to any such error or misdescription.

24. No Warranties

24.1. General

- (a) The Buyer represents and warrants that:
 - (i) it has been given the opportunity to obtain independent legal, financial and taxation advice with regards to this Contract, Disclosure Statement and any disclosed material;
 - (ii) it entered into this contract after the Buyer's own satisfactory investigations and enquiries in relation to the Lot including a review of any plans and specifications for the Lot;
 - (iii) any promotional or marketing material provided to the Buyer or by any person in respect of the Lot will not form part of this Contract.
 - (iv) it entered into this contract after satisfying itself about:
 - (i) the condition and quality of the proposed Lot;
 - (ii) the purpose or use to which the Lot can be lawfully used;
 - (iii) the value or economic viability of the Lot;
 - (iv) the fitness or suitability of the Lot for any purpose or use the Buyer wants to use the Lot;
 - (v) the rights and privileges pertaining to the Lot;
 - (vi) the means of access to the Lot and any service connected to or provided to the Lot; and
 - (vii) any adjoining developments that may impact on the Lot;
 - (v) it has not relied upon and will not rely upon any representation, search, advice or information made or provided by the Seller, the Seller's agent, the Seller's solicitor or any other person acting or purporting to act on behalf of the Seller and the Buyer releases and discharges every such person from all liability in connection with any representation, search, advice or information made or provided (whether written or oral); and
 - (vi) the terms of this Contract, constitute the entire and only agreement between the parties in relation to the sale and purchase of the Lot.
- (b) The Buyer agrees that no warranty is given or is to be implied about any of the matters referred to in clause 24.1(a) and the Buyer cannot terminate this Contract or delay completion or Claim compensation or damages in relation to any of the matters referred to in clause 24.1(a).

24.2. Warranties and representations by Seller

- (a) The Buyer acknowledges and agrees that, except as specifically provided otherwise in this Contract, at no time has the Seller or any person on behalf of the Seller, made or given; or has the Buyer relied on, any representation, warranty, promise or forecast in relation to the sale and purchase of the Lot the Development or View Estate or any adjoining developments.
- (b) Notwithstanding anything in this Contract to the contrary, the Seller makes no representation regarding the Lot or any matter incidental thereto.

25. Trustee Buyer

- (a) If the Buyer is purchasing the Lot in its capacity as trustee of a trust (the Trust), whether on entering into this Contract or at a later date, and whether or not the Seller has notice of the Trust, then the Buyer warrants that:
 - (i) it has full power under the Trust to enter into and perform this Contract;
 - (ii) the Trust is validly created and is in existence;
 - (iii) the Buyer is the sole trustee of the Trust and is validly appointed as such.
 - (iv) the Buyer agrees that, despite the above, it is also personally liable under this Contract.
- (b) The Buyer warrants that it has the right of indemnity under the Trust and the Buyer must not do anything to prejudice that right of indemnity and must not breach the Trust.
- (c) The Buyer shall not exercise in its own favour any right of indemnification, lien or charge to which it may be entitled under or in respect of the Trust prior to the satisfaction of all the Buyer's obligations under this Contract, whether personal or in its capacity as trustee of the Trust.
- (d) If any of the Lot of the Trust shall at any time be in the hands of the Buyer free of their trust character by virtue of the exercise or purported exercise of any such right of indemnification, lien or charge, the Buyer shall hold the Lot on trust for the Seller to the extent to which any liability under this Contract has not been satisfied.
- (e) If at any time prior to the satisfaction of any liability of the Buyer under this Contract, the Buyer ceases for any reason to be the sole trustee of the Trust, the Buyer shall procure any new or additional trustee of the Trust to execute in favour of the Seller such covenants relating to the subject matter of this Contract as the Seller may reasonably require, including, without limitation, covenants in the like terms as those contained in this Special Condition 23.
- (f) The Buyer warrants that it is not in breach of any of its obligations under the Trust and that its powers under the Trust have not been revoked and that it has not been removed from office as trustee of the Trust and has not ceased for any other reason to act as trustee of the Trust. The Buyer further warrants that the Trust has not been determined, wound up or ceased to exist nor has it any knowledge of the same likely to occur. In the event that the Trust is determined, wound up or ceases to exist, the Buyer agrees to immediately notify the Seller in writing of such occurrence.

26. Director/s Guarantee and Indemnity

- (a) This clause must apply if the Buyer is a company (including any corporate trustee).
- (b) Each director of the purchasing company will execute a personal guarantee and indemnity contained in Annexure A on the terms and conditions satisfactory to the Seller.

27. Electronic Settlement

- (a) Payment of the Balance Purchase Price electronically as directed by the Seller's Solicitor in the Financial Settlement Schedule satisfies the Buyer's obligation in clause 8.5(a).

The Seller and Buyer will be taken to have complied with its Withholding Law and obligations (as applicable) if at settlement the Financial Settlement Schedule specifies payment of the relevant amount to the account nominated by the Commissioner of Taxation.

- (b) The Seller will be taken to have complied with clause 13.3(b) if:
 - (i) in relation to documents which are suitable for Electronic Lodgement in the Land Registry at settlement, the documents are Digitally Signed within the Electronic Workspace; and
 - (ii) in relation to any other document or thing, the Seller's Solicitor:
 - (A) confirms in writing prior to settlement that it holds all relevant documents which are not suitable for Electronic Lodgement and all Keys in escrow on the terms contained in the QLS E-Conveyancing Guidelines; and
 - (B) gives a written undertaking to send the documents and Keys (if applicable) to the Buyer or Buyer's Solicitor no later than the Business Day after settlement; and
 - (C) if requested by the Buyer, provides copies of documents in the Seller's Solicitors possession.
- (c) A party is not in default to the extent it is prevented from complying with an obligation because the other party or the other party's Financial Institution has not done something in the Electronic Workspace.
- (d) Any rights under the contract or at law to terminate the contract may not be exercised during the time the Electronic Workspace is locked for Electronic Settlement.
- (e) Electronic Settlement is taken to occur when Financial Settlement is effected, whether or not Electronic Lodgement has occurred.
- (f) If settlement fails and cannot occur by 4pm AEST on the Settlement Date because a computer system operated by the Land Registry, Queensland Revenue Office, Reserve Bank, a Financial Institution or the relevant ELNO System is inoperative or unavailable, neither party is in default and the Settlement Date is deemed to be the next Business Day. Time remains of the essence.
- (g) Each party must pay its own fees and charges of using the relevant ELNO System for Electronic Settlement.

28. Electronic Contract and Disclosure

28.1. Electronic Signing

If this Contract is signed by any person using an Electronic Signature, the Buyer and the Seller:

- (a) Agree to enter into this Contract in electronic form; and
- (b) Consent to either or both parties signing the Contract using an Electronic Signature.

28.2. Pre-Contract Disclosure

The Buyer consents to the Seller's use of electronic communication to give any notice or information required by law to be given to the Buyer and which was given before the Buyer signed this Contract.

29. Special Conditions

The special conditions (if any) referred to in the Reference Schedule apply to this Contract and in that regard, completion under this Contract will be conditional upon those conditions being satisfied in accordance with their terms.

- (p) words in the singular include the plural and vice versa; and
- (q) a reference to one gender includes a reference to the other genders.

2. Guarantee

2.1 The Guarantor unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to the Benefitting Party the performance in full of all of the Guaranteed Obligations as and when those obligations fall due for performance in accordance with the terms of the Principal Agreement.

2.2 If, and each time that, the Principal Obligor fails to perform any Guaranteed Obligation in full when due, the Guarantor must, on demand, without requiring the Benefitting Party to first:

- (a) take any steps against the Principal Obligor or any other person; or
- (b) enforce any Encumbrance that it may hold in relation to that Guaranteed Obligation, perform that Guaranteed Obligation in full and when due in accordance with the terms of the Principal Agreement as if the Guarantor was the principal obligors in respect of that Guaranteed Obligation.

Actions to bind Guarantors

2.3 Any agreement, waiver, consent or release given by the Principal Obligor under or in connection with the Principal Agreement will bind the Guarantor.

3. Indemnity

The Guarantor must indemnify and forever keep fully indemnified the Benefitting Party at all times against any and all Losses that are:

- (a) suffered or incurred by the Benefitting Party; and
- (b) caused, whether directly or indirectly, by any breach of this deed by the Guarantor.

4. Preservation of obligations

The obligations of the Guarantor under this deed are not affected by any matter or thing which, but for this clause 4, might operate to affect or prejudice those obligations, including:

- (a) any time, indulgence or concession granted to, or composition with, the Principal Obligor or any other person;
- (b) any variation, renewal, release, replacement, extinguishment, abandonment or transfer of, or neglect to perfect or enforce, the Principal Agreement, any other agreement or document contemplated by, or referred to in, the Principal Agreement or any right, guarantee, remedy or security from or against the Principal Obligor or any other person;
- (c) any waiver, consent or notice given under the Principal Agreement or any other agreement or document contemplated by, or referred to in, the Principal Agreement;
- (d) any obligation of the Principal Obligor being or becoming unenforceable, invalid, illegal, void, voidable or disclaimed by a liquidator or trustee for creditors or in bankruptcy, so that the Principal Agreement must be construed as if there were no such unenforceability, invalidity, illegality or other impediment to enforceability;
- (e) the occurrence of an Insolvency Event in relation to the Principal Obligor, the Guarantor or any other person;
- (f) the Benefitting Party not giving the Guarantor notice of any default by the Principal Obligor or any other person;
- (g) the Benefitting Party not disclosing any information to the Guarantor;
- (h) any legal limitation, disability or incapacity in relation to the Principal Obligor, the Guarantor or any other person;
- (i) any invalidity or irregularity in the execution of this deed, the Principal Agreement or any other agreement or document contemplated by, or referred to in, the Principal Agreement;
- (j) any deficiency in the powers of the Principal Obligor or the Guarantor;
- (k) any assignment by the Benefitting Party, with or without the knowledge of the Principal Obligor or the Guarantor;
- (l) any person who was intended to be bound as a guarantor or surety in relation to the Guaranteed Obligations not becoming bound or ceasing to be bound;
- (m) any laches, acquiescence, delay, action, omission or mistake on the part of, or suffered by, the Benefitting Party or any other person in relation to this deed or any other guarantee, Encumbrance or agreement;
- (n) the receipt by the Benefitting Party or any other person of any dividend or money after an Insolvency Event in relation to the Principal Obligor, the Guarantor or any other person;
- (o) any judgment or right that the Benefitting Party may have or exercise against the Principal Obligor, the Guarantor or any other person;

- (p) the adoption, amendment or replacement of, or any breach of, the constitution, trust deed or other constituting document of the Principal Obligor, the Guarantor or any other person; or
- (q) any change in the ownership or control of the Principal Obligor, the Guarantor or any other person.

5. Limitation of rights

5.1 The Guarantor irrevocably waives, and must not exercise, any right of indemnity or subrogation that it otherwise might be entitled to claim and enforce against, or in respect of, the Benefitting Party. Without limitation to the foregoing, the Guarantors must not:

- (a) share in any guarantee, Encumbrance or money received or receivable by the Benefitting Party in relation to the Guaranteed Obligations, or stand in the place of the Benefitting Party in relation to any such guarantee, Encumbrance or right to receive money;
- (b) take any steps to enforce a right or claim against the Principal Obligor relating to any money paid by the Guarantor to the Benefitting Party under this deed;
- (c) exercise, or purport to exercise, any rights as surety in competition with the Benefitting Party;
- (d) receive, claim or have the benefit of any payment (including a payment under a guarantee), distribution or Encumbrance from or on account of the Principal Obligor or any other person;
- (e) in reduction, or attempted reduction, of its liability under this deed, raise a defence, set-off or counterclaim available to itself, the Principal Obligor or a co-surety or co-indemnifier against the Benefitting Party; or
- (f) claim to be entitled by way of contribution, indemnity, subrogation, marshalling or otherwise to the benefit of any agreement or document to which the Benefitting Party is a party.

No marshalling

5.2 The Benefitting Party is not under any obligation to marshal or appropriate in favour of the Guarantor, or to exercise, apply, perfect or recover, any Encumbrance that the Benefitting Party holds at any time or any funds or property that the Benefitting Party may be entitled to receive or claim.

6. Effect of Insolvency Event

6.1 If the Principal Obligor is the subject of an Insolvency Event, the Guarantor irrevocably authorises the Benefitting Party to:

- (a) prove for all money that the Guarantor is liable to pay under this deed; and
- (b) retain and carry to a suspense account, and appropriate, at the Benefitting Party's discretion, any dividends or other money received in relation to the Guaranteed Obligations, until the Guaranteed Obligations have been irrevocably performed in full.

6.2 If an Insolvency Event has occurred in relation to the Principal Obligor or the Guarantor, any amount paid by the Principal Obligor or the Guarantor (as the case may be) within the preceding 6 months (the Relevant Payment) will only be applied against any Guaranteed Obligations if:

- (a) the Benefitting Party forms the opinion in good faith (which will be conclusively binding on the Guarantor) that it will not be required to pay all or any part of the Relevant Payment to any person under any law relating to bankruptcy, winding up or the protection of creditors; or

- (b) a final judgment is given by a court of competent jurisdiction in favour of the Benefitting Party that it is not required to pay all or part of the Relevant Payment to any person under any law relating to bankruptcy, winding up or the protection of creditors.
- 6.3 If an amount is applied against any Guaranteed Obligations and the Benefitting Party forms the opinion in good faith that it is obliged to pay all or part of the Relevant Payment to any person under any law relating to bankruptcy, winding up or the protection of creditors:
- (a) the rights of the Benefitting Party are to be reinstated and will be the same in relation to that amount as if the application, or the payment or transaction giving rise to it, had not been made; and
 - (b) the Guarantor must immediately do anything (including executing any documents) required by the Benefitting Party to restore to the Benefitting Party any guarantee or Encumbrance to which it was entitled immediately before that application or the payment or transaction giving rise to it, and any discharge or release between the Benefitting Party and the Guarantor is subject to reinstatement of the rights of the Benefitting Party under this clause 6.3.

7. Duration

This deed will continue in full force and effect indefinitely unless and until:

- (a) it is terminated by mutual agreement between the parties; or
- (b) all of the Guaranteed Obligations have been irrevocably performed in full.

8. Payments

Method of payment

- 8.1 All amounts to be paid by a party to another party under or in connection with this deed must be paid in cash or by way of bank cheque or electronic funds transfer into the account nominated by the other party.

No set-off or deduction

- 8.2 All amounts payable under or in connection with this deed must be paid without set-off, counterclaim, withholding, deduction or claim to a lien whatsoever, whether or not any such set-off, counterclaim, withholding, deduction or lien arises under this deed (unless otherwise required by law).
- 8.3 If a party is required by law to make a deduction or withholding in respect of any sum payable under or in connection with this deed to another party, it must, at the same time as the sum that is the subject of the deduction or withholding is payable, make a payment to the other party of such additional amount as is required to ensure that the net amount received by the other party will equal the full amount that would have been received by it had no such deduction or withholding been required to be made.

9. GST

Definitions regarding GST

- 9.1 In this clause 9:
- (a) expressions that are not defined, but which have a defined meaning in the GST Law, have the same meaning as in the GST Law;
 - (b) any part of a supply that is treated as a separate supply for GST purposes (including attributing GST payable to tax periods) will be treated as a separate supply for the purposes of this clause 9; and

- (c) any consideration that is specified to be inclusive of GST must not be taken into account in calculating the GST payable in relation to a supply for the purpose of this clause 9.

Consideration is exclusive of GST

- 9.2 Unless expressly stated otherwise, any sum payable, or amount used in the calculation of a sum payable, under this deed has been determined without regard to GST and must be increased on account of any GST payable under this clause 9.

Receiving Party to pay additional amount

- 9.3 If GST is imposed on any supply made under or in accordance with this deed, the recipient of the supply (Receiving Party) must pay to the supplier (Supplier) an additional amount equal to the GST payable on the supply, subject to the Receiving Party receiving a valid tax invoice, or a document that the Commissioner will treat as a tax invoice, in respect of the supply at or before the time of payment. Payment of the additional amount will be made at the same time and in the same manner as payment for the supply is required to be made in accordance with this deed.

Fines, penalties and interest

- 9.4 The amount recoverable on account of GST under this clause 9 by the Supplier will include any fines, penalties, interest and other charges incurred as a consequence of any late payment or other default by the Receiving Party under this clause 9.

Reimbursement

- 9.5 If any party is required to pay, reimburse or indemnify another party for the whole or any part of any cost, expense, loss, liability or other amount that the other party has incurred or will incur in connection with this deed, the amount must be reduced by the amount for which the other party can claim an input tax credit, partial input tax credit or other similar offset.

Adjustment events

- 9.6 If, at any time, an adjustment event arises in respect of any supply made by a party under this deed, a corresponding adjustment must be made between the parties in respect of any amount paid to the Supplier by the Receiving Party pursuant to clause 9.3 and payments to give effect to the adjustment must be made and the Supplier must issue an adjustment note.

10. Notices

- 10.1 A notice given to a party under this deed must be:

- (a) in writing in English;
- (b) sent to the address, fax number or email address of the relevant party as set out in the list of parties that starts on page 25 of this deed (or such other address, fax number or email address as the relevant party may notify to the other parties from time to time); and
- (c) delivered/sent either:
 - (i) personally;
 - (ii) by commercial courier;
 - (iii) by pre-paid post;
 - (iv) if the notice is to be served by post outside the country from which it is sent, by airmail;
 - (v) by fax; or
 - (vi) by e-mail.

10.2 A notice is deemed to have been received:

- (a) if delivered personally, at the time of delivery;
- (b) if delivered by commercial courier, at the time of signature of the courier's receipt;
- (c) if sent by pre-paid post, 48 hours from the date of posting;
- (d) if sent by airmail, five days after the date of posting;
- (e) if sent by fax, at the time shown in the transmission report generated by the machine from which the fax was sent; or
- (f) if sent by e-mail, 4 hours after the sent time (as recorded on the sender's e-mail server), unless the sender receives a notice from the Guarantor's email server or internet service provider that the message has not been delivered to the Guarantor, except that, if such deemed receipt is not within business hours (meaning 9:00 am to 5:30 pm on a Business Day), the notice will be deemed to have been received at the next commencement of business hours in the place of deemed receipt.

10.3 To prove service, it is sufficient to prove that:

- (a) in the case of post – that the envelope containing the notice was properly addressed and posted;
- (b) in the case of fax – the notice was transmitted to the fax number of the party; and
- (c) in the case of email – the email was transmitted to the Guarantor's email server or internet service provider.

11. General

Third parties

11.1 This deed is made for the benefit of the parties to it and their successors and permitted assigns and is not intended to benefit, or be enforceable by, anyone else.

Indemnities continuing

11.2 Any indemnity provided by a party under this deed is a continuing obligation separate and independent from any other obligations of that party and survives termination of this deed.

Costs

11.3 All costs and expenses in connection with the negotiation, preparation and execution of this deed, and any documents referred to in it, will be borne by the party that incurred the costs.

Further assurances

11.4 Each party must (at its own expense) promptly execute and deliver all such documents, and do all such things, as any other party may from time to time reasonably require for the purpose of giving full effect to the provisions of this deed.

Entire agreement

11.5 This deed contains the entire understanding between the parties in relation to its subject matter and supersedes any previous arrangement, understanding or agreement relating to its subject matter. There are no express or implied conditions, warranties, promises, representations or obligations, written or oral, in relation to this deed other than those expressly stated in it or necessarily implied by statute.

Severability

- 11.6 If a provision of this deed is invalid or unenforceable in a jurisdiction:
- (a) it is to be read down or severed in that jurisdiction to the extent of the invalidity or unenforceability; and
 - (b) that fact does not affect the validity or enforceability of that provision in another jurisdiction, or the remaining provisions.

No waiver

- 11.7 No failure, delay, relaxation or indulgence by a party in exercising any power or right conferred upon it under this deed will operate as a waiver of that power or right. No single or partial exercise of any power or right precludes any other or future exercise of it, or the exercise of any other power or right under this deed.

Ipsso facto legislation

- 11.8 If any provision of this deed is otherwise unenforceable by virtue of the operation of the Treasury Laws Amendment (2017 Enterprise Incentives No. 2) Act 2017 (Cth), upon the occurrence of an Insolvency Event in respect of the Principal Obligor or the Guarantor, notwithstanding any other provision of this deed, to the maximum extent permitted by law:
- (a) time is of the essence in respect of all obligations of the Guarantor under this deed (whether falling due for performance before, upon or after the occurrence of that Insolvency Event); and
 - (b) any breach of this deed by the Guarantor (whether occurring before, upon or after the occurrence of that Insolvency Event), however minor, will (alone or, severally, in combination with the occurrence of that Insolvency Event) be deemed to be a material breach of this deed, and, if any such material breach has occurred or occurs, the parties acknowledge and agree that such provision will instead be enforceable by virtue of the occurrence of that material breach.

Amendment

- 11.9 This deed may not be varied except by written instrument executed by all of the parties.

Assignment

- 11.10 The Guarantor must not assign, transfer, sub-contract, create any trust over or otherwise deal in any way with any of its rights or obligations under this deed without the prior written consent of each other party.
- 11.11 The Benefitting Party may assign, transfer, sub-contract, create any trust over or otherwise deal in any way with any of its rights or obligations under this deed without the prior written consent of any other party.

Counterparts

- 11.12 This deed may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which is an original and which together will have the same effect as if each party had signed the same document.

Electronic exchange

- 11.13 Delivery of an executed counterpart of this deed by facsimile, or by email in PDF or other image format, will be equally effective as delivery of an original signed hard copy of that counterpart.
- 11.14 If a party delivers an executed counterpart of this deed under clause 11.13:

- (a) it must also deliver an original signed hard copy of that counterpart, but failure to do so will not affect the validity, enforceability or binding effect of this deed; and
- (b) in any legal proceedings relating to this deed, each party waives the right to raise any defence based upon any such failure.

Governing law and jurisdiction

- 11.15 This deed and any disputes or claims arising out of or in connection with its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of Queensland, Australia.
- 11.16 The parties irrevocably agree that the courts of Queensland, Australia have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim that arises out of, or in connection with, this deed or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).

30. Additional Special Conditions

31. Finance

- 31.1 This Contract is conditional on the Buyer obtaining approval of a loan, satisfactory to the Buyer and sufficient to complete this Contract, from any bank or financial institution within 60 days of the Contract Date (Finance Date). The Buyer must take all reasonable steps to obtain approval.
- 31.2 The Buyer must give notice to the Seller that:
- (a) approval has not been obtained by the Finance Date and the Buyer terminates this Contract; or
 - (b) the finance condition has either been satisfied or waived by the Buyer.
- 31.3 The Seller may terminate this Contract by notice to the Buyer if notice is not given under clause 31.2 by 5pm on the Finance Date. This is the Seller's only remedy for the Buyer's failure to give notice.
- 31.4 The Seller's right under clause 31.3 is subject to the Buyers continuing right to give written notice to the Seller of satisfaction, termination or waiver pursuant to clause 31.2.
